

>> Standards and Laws

The products ELOprofessional and ELOenterprise are equipped with all functionalities, which are legally compliant in nearly all countries. Depending on the country, auditing and certification is only possible for a full installation, this means software, hardware and process sequences.

The ELO software development underlies basically the following accepted worldwide ISO standards:

- Records management ISO 15489
- Document management ISO 82045
- Document Filing and Retrieval ISO 10166
- Electronic signature guideline EU Directive 1999/93/EC

Frequently asked questions concerning national legal requirements:

Is the system compliant with the Swiss legislation concerning archiving? If yes, which specific laws are related to the system?	yes	OR (GeBüV), MwSt, VZertES
Is the system compliant with the US American legislation concerning archiving? If yes, which specific laws are related to the system?	yes	FDA CFR21 / Part 11, USGA, SOX
Is the system compliant with the German legislation concerning archiving? If yes, which specific laws are related to the system?	yes	GoBs, GDPdU, SigG, BDSG, KonTraG
Is the system compliant with the French legislation concerning archiving? If yes, which specific laws are related to the system?	yes	l'article 1316 - 4 du Code civil SEC 17a Loi sur la sécurité financière (LSF)
Is the system compliant with the British legislation concerning archiving? If yes, which specific laws are related to the system?	yes	BCCI, „Code of Practice...“, Civil Evidence Act
Is the system compliant with the Asian legislation concerning archiving? If yes, which specific laws are related to the system?	yes and no	The Asian legislation is not yet clearly defined but is mostly based on the international directive, J-Sox (Japan)
Are there any further laws or directives? If yes, which specific laws / directives are related to the system?	yes	DOMEA Government - conform, Basel II, EuroSOX